

MELANCHOLINESS

Meaning: Melancholiness is a deep, persistent sadness or sorrowful mood often characterized by a reflective or pensive quality.

1. The melancholiness of the rainy afternoon seemed to seep into her bones.
2. He expressed his melancholiness through poignant poetry that resonated with many.
3. In moments of deep reflection, a sense of melancholiness often washed over him.
4. The painting captured the melancholiness of autumn leaves falling to the ground.
5. She found beauty in the melancholiness of solitude, embracing it as a source of inspiration.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/melancholiness>