

MELANCHOLY

Meaning: Melancholy is a deep, persistent sadness or reflective sorrow often associated with nostalgia or contemplation of the past.

1. The old photograph filled her with a sense of melancholy as she reminisced about the past.
2. On rainy days, he often found himself lost in a melancholy reverie, contemplating life's uncertainties.
3. The melancholy melody of the piano echoed through the empty room, evoking deep emotions.
4. There was a melancholy beauty in the way the leaves fell, signaling the end of summer.
5. After the news of his departure, a melancholy silence settled over the group, as everyone processed the loss.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/melancholy>