

MELANIC

Meaning: Melanic refers to a dark or black coloration in organisms, often resulting from increased melanin production.

1. The melanic variation of the species was particularly striking against the lush green backdrop of the forest.
2. Scientists studied the melanic forms of butterflies to understand the genetic factors influencing color adaptation.
3. In some populations, the melanic individuals had a higher survival rate due to their ability to blend into darker environments.
4. The artist's portrayal of the melanic beetle highlighted its unique and dramatic coloration.
5. Researchers hypothesized that the increase in melanic traits was a response to urban heat islands in the city.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/melanic>