

MELANOSIS

Meaning: Melanosis is a condition marked by an abnormal increase of melanin in the skin, often linked to specific medications or diseases.

1. Melanosis is often characterized by an abnormal increase of melanin in the skin.
2. The doctor explained that melanosis can occur as a result of certain medications or diseases.
3. In some cases, melanosis may indicate underlying health issues that require further investigation.
4. Patients diagnosed with melanosis are typically monitored for any changes in skin pigmentation.
5. Research into the causes of melanosis continues to evolve, shedding light on its various forms.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/melanosis>