

MELL

Meaning: Mell (noun): A sweet or pleasant scent or fragrance.

1. The sweet mell of the honeycomb filled the air as she opened the jar.
2. As the sun set, a mell glow enveloped the entire landscape.
3. He spoke in a mell tone that instantly put everyone at ease.
4. The mell of freshly baked bread wafted through the kitchen, inviting everyone to the table.
5. In her poetry, she often captured the mell beauty of nature in vivid detail.
6. The sweet scent of the mell from the blooming flowers filled the garden.
7. As the sun set, the mell of the evening air brought a sense of calm.
8. Her voice had a mell quality that made everyone feel at ease.
9. He savored the mell taste of the honey drizzled over his warm biscuit.
10. The mell tones of the musician's guitar resonated through the quiet hall.
11. The sweet fragrance of the flowers made the garden feel like a mell haven.
12. As the sun set, a mell glow enveloped the landscape, creating a serene atmosphere.
13. Her voice had a mell quality that was soothing to everyone who heard it.
14. In the evening, the mell warmth of the fireplace invited everyone to gather around.
15. The mell tones of the music filled the room, bringing a sense of calm and relaxation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mell>