MELLIFEROUS

Meaning: Melliferous refers to producing or yielding honey; sweet-sounding or sweet-smelling, often associated with bees and flowers.

1. The melliferous hum of bees filled the garden, creating a serene atmosphere.
2. As she walked through the orchard, the melliferous scent of blooming flowers enveloped her senses.
3. His melliferous voice captivated the audience, drawing them into the story he told.
4. The melliferous notes of the choir echoed through the cathedral, leaving the congregation in awe.
5. In spring, the air was often sweetened by the melliferous presence of wildflowers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/melliferous