

MEMBRANACEOUS

Meaning: Membranaceous: having a thin, flexible, and often translucent structure resembling a membrane.

1. The fish's membranaceous fins allowed for graceful movement through the water.
2. Botanists often study membranaceous leaves for their unique adaptations to different environments.
3. In some species, the membranaceous structures serve as protective barriers against predators.
4. The membranaceous nature of certain insects' wings contributes to their lightweight and agile flight.
5. Researchers are investigating the membranaceous tissues in both plants and animals to understand their functions better.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/membranaceous>