

MEMORATIVE

Meaning: MEMORATIVE: serving to commemorate or honor an event, person, or group, often through a physical marker or reflective storytelling.

1. The city unveiled a memorative plaque to honor the fallen heroes of the war.
2. Her speech was filled with memorative anecdotes that celebrated their shared experiences.
3. They organized a memorative event to reflect on the significant historical milestones of the community.
4. The artist created a memorative sculpture that captured the essence of the city's rich history.
5. Each year, the school hosts a memorative ceremony to remember its founding members and their contributions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/memorative>