

MEND

Meaning: Mend: to repair something that is damaged or to restore a relationship to a better state.

1. She decided to mend the tears in her favorite dress before the party.
2. After their argument, they both knew it was time to mend their friendship.
3. The skilled tailor could mend the suit in just a few hours.
4. He hoped to mend the broken relationship with his estranged brother.
5. To mend her broken heart, she spent time with close friends and family.
6. She decided to mend her broken friendship by reaching out and apologizing.
7. The tailor offered to mend the tear in my favorite jacket for a reasonable price.
8. After weeks of hard work, he was finally able to mend the relationship with his estranged father.
9. The organization aims to mend the divide in the community through dialogue and understanding.
10. With patience and care, she managed to mend the delicate vase that had shattered on the floor.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mend>