

MERCATANTE

Meaning: MERCATANTE: A merchant or trader, particularly one who actively sells goods in a market setting.

1. The mercatante skillfully negotiated the terms of the deal, ensuring both parties felt satisfied.
2. In the bustling market, the mercatante showcased his wares with great enthusiasm, attracting curious customers.
3. The mercatante from the coastal town was known for his exquisite seafood, drawing in patrons from far and wide.
4. With a deep understanding of trade, the mercatante adapted his strategies to meet the changing demands of his clientele.
5. Despite facing fierce competition, the mercatante's reputation for quality and fair pricing set him apart in the marketplace.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mercatante>