MERCENARINESS

Meaning: MERCENARINESS: the quality of being primarily motivated by personal gain or profit rather than loyalty or principle.

1. The mercenariness of the hired soldiers was evident in their lack of allegiance to any cause.

2. Despite his talent, his mercenariness alienated him from genuine artists who valued passion over profit.

3. Many criticized her mercenariness, suggesting that her art had become mere commerce rather than a true expression.

4. In the world of politics, mercenariness often leads to betrayal, as loyalty can be bought and sold.

5. The film's portrayal of mercenariness highlights the moral dilemmas faced by individuals who prioritize money over principles.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mercenariness