

MERCHANT

Meaning: A merchant is a person or business engaged in the trade of goods, often buying from producers and selling to consumers.

1. The merchant skillfully negotiated prices with the local farmers.
2. After years of hard work, she finally became a successful merchant in the bustling market.
3. The merchant's shop was filled with exotic goods from distant lands.
4. He learned the trade from his father, who was also a respected merchant in the community.
5. During the medieval period, many merchants traveled great distances to trade valuable spices.
6. The merchant traveled to distant lands to acquire rare spices.
7. In medieval times, the merchant class played a crucial role in the economy.
8. She negotiated a favorable deal with the merchant for the fine silk.
9. The local merchant was known for his honesty and fair pricing.
10. With the rise of e-commerce, traditional merchants face new challenges.
11. The merchant traveled across the seas to trade exotic spices.
12. In the bustling marketplace, the merchant showcased colorful fabrics from distant lands.
13. After years of hard work, the merchant finally opened a store in the heart of the city.
14. Many aspiring entrepreneurs look to successful merchants for inspiration and guidance.
15. The merchant's keen eye for quality helped him build a loyal customer base.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/merchant>