

MERCHANTMAN

Meaning: Merchantman: A merchant ship engaged in the transportation of goods for trade.

1. The merchantman sailed gracefully across the horizon, laden with spices and silks.
2. In the bustling port, the merchantman was eagerly awaited by traders looking to stock their shelves.
3. As storms approached, the captain of the merchantman prepared his crew for a challenging journey.
4. The history of the merchantman is intertwined with tales of adventure and discovery on the high seas.
5. During the war, many merchantmen were repurposed to transport troops and supplies to the front lines.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/merchantman>