

MERIT

Meaning: Merit refers to the quality of being particularly good or worthy, especially as to deserve praise or reward.

1. Her promotion was based on her merit and dedication to the company.
2. The scholarship program rewards students solely on academic merit, not financial need.
3. He received praise for his merit in developing an innovative solution to the problem.
4. The committee evaluated each candidate's merit before making their final decision.
5. She believes that merit should be the primary factor in determining success, rather than connections.
6. The scholarship was awarded based on academic merit rather than financial need.
7. She believed that her hard work and dedication would merit recognition from her peers.
8. His contributions to the project were significant enough to merit a promotion.
9. The committee evaluated each candidate on their individual merit and potential for growth.
10. In the end, it was her creativity that truly merited her selection for the team.
11. Hard work and dedication are often rewarded with merit in the workplace.
12. She received praise for her project, which highlighted the merit of innovative thinking.
13. In a fair competition, only the merit of the participants should determine the winner.
14. His achievements are a testament to the merit of perseverance and resilience.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/merit>