

MESENTERIC

Meaning: Mesenteric refers to the tissue or structures related to the mesentery, which is the fold of tissue that attaches the intestines to the abdominal wall and contains blood vessels, lymph nodes, and nerves.

1. The surgeon carefully examined the mesenteric tissue during the operation.
2. Mesenteric lymph nodes play a crucial role in the immune response of the gastrointestinal tract.
3. A blockage in the mesenteric arteries can lead to severe abdominal pain and ischemia.
4. The patient's symptoms were traced back to inflammation of the mesenteric fat.
5. Research on mesenteric circulation is vital for understanding various digestive disorders.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mesenteric>