METABOLIAN

Meaning: Metabolian refers to processes or characteristics related to metabolism, particularly those that govern biological functions and energy transformations within living organisms.

1. The scientist proposed a new theory centered around the concept of being metabolic or 'metabolian' in nature.

2. Her latest research focused on the metabolian processes that underpin cellular regeneration.

3. As a metabolian organism, the species demonstrated an extraordinary ability to adapt to varying environmental conditions.

4. The team's findings highlight the importance of understanding metabolian dynamics in the study of ecosystem health.

5. In the lecture, the professor explained how metabolian pathways are crucial for energy production in living cells.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/metabolian