

METACHRONISM

Meaning: Metachronism refers to the use of elements from different time periods within a narrative, which can lead to confusion in storytelling.

1. Metachronism can create confusion in narratives that span multiple time periods.
2. In his lecture, the professor explained the significance of metachronism in historical fiction.
3. The movie's use of metachronism highlighted the contrasts between past and present.
4. Critics noted that the metachronism in the play undermined its overall message.
5. Understanding metachronism is essential for analyzing the complexities of time in literature.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/metachronism>