

METALEPTIC

Meaning: Metaleptic refers to a narrative technique that blurs the boundaries between different levels of storytelling or reality, often allowing for an interplay between fictional and non-fictional elements.

1. The concept of metaleptic narrative allows for a fascinating interplay between different levels of storytelling.
2. In her thesis, she explored the metaleptic techniques used by various authors to blur the lines between reality and fiction.
3. The film's metaleptic structure challenged viewers to reconsider their perspective on the characters' realities.
4. Metaleptic elements can create a rich tapestry of meaning by inviting the audience into the author's creative process.
5. Understanding metaleptic devices can enhance one's appreciation of postmodern literature and its complexities.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/metaleptic>