

METALLICLY

Meaning: METALLICLY: in a manner resembling or characteristic of metal, often producing a cold, hard, or resonant sound.

1. The gears turned metallicly, creating a rhythmic sound that echoed through the room.
2. Her voice rang metallicly, a reminder of the coldness that had taken over their relationship.
3. The sculpture shimmered metallicly under the bright lights, catching everyone's attention.
4. As the thunder rolled, the sky darkened and the air felt metallicly charged with anticipation.
5. He spoke metallicly, his words lacking warmth as he delivered the harsh news.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/metallicly>