

METALLOCHROME

Meaning: Metallochrome refers to a type of paint or compound that exhibits brilliant, reflective qualities and unique optical properties, often used in art and materials science.

1. The artist used a metallochrome paint to give the sculpture a brilliant, reflective finish.
2. Metallochrome compounds are often explored for their unique optical properties in advanced materials science.
3. The vibrant colors produced by the metallochrome technique captivated the audience at the art exhibition.
4. Researchers are investigating how metallochrome elements can enhance the durability of everyday metal objects.
5. In the world of fashion, metallochrome textiles have emerged as a trend, adding an eye-catching shimmer to clothing.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/metallochrome>