

METALLOPHONE

Meaning: Metallophone: a musical instrument consisting of a series of metal bars of varying lengths that produce sound when struck, often used in educational settings.

1. The metallophone produces a rich, resonant sound that captivates audiences.
2. In music classes, students often learn to play simple melodies on the metallophone.
3. The unique timbre of the metallophone adds depth to orchestral arrangements.
4. Crafting a metallophone requires precision in tuning each bar to achieve the desired pitch.
5. During the performance, the metallophone player showcased impressive technique and expressiveness.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/metallophone>