

METAMORPHOSER

Meaning: Metamorphoser: a person or entity that undergoes or facilitates transformation or change, particularly in artistic or natural contexts.

1. The artist was known as a metamorphoser, transforming everyday objects into profound works of art.
2. In nature, the caterpillar serves as a perfect example of a metamorphoser, evolving into a beautiful butterfly.
3. As a writer, she often acted as a metamorphoser, reshaping her characters' identities throughout the narrative.
4. The scientist referred to himself as a metamorphoser, dedicated to innovating and advancing technology in unexpected ways.
5. Through her dance, she became a metamorphoser, expressing emotion and change with every fluid movement.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/metamorphoser>