

METAZOIC

Meaning: Metazoic refers to the geological era marked by the development and diversification of complex multicellular organisms.

1. The term "metazoic" refers to the era characterized by the emergence of complex multicellular organisms.
2. Scientists are studying metazoic fossils to better understand the evolution of life on Earth.
3. In metazoic times, the oceans were teeming with diverse life forms, many of which laid the groundwork for modern ecosystems.
4. The transition from single-celled organisms to metazoic life marked a significant turning point in biological history.
5. Research on metazoic periods reveals insights into how environmental changes influenced species development.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/metazoic>