

METRIFICATION

Meaning: Metrification is the process of converting measurements to the metric system to ensure standardization and consistency across various applications.

1. Metrification of measurements has become a standard practice in many countries to ensure consistency.
2. The push for metrification in industries has led to improved efficiency and international compatibility.
3. Despite the benefits, there is still resistance to metrification among certain groups who prefer customary units.
4. Metrification can simplify scientific communication by providing a common framework for data comparison.
5. The government launched a campaign to educate the public on the advantages of metrification for everyday use.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/metrification>