

METROGRAPH

Meaning: Metrograph: a cinema or film venue that focuses on showcasing films, often with an emphasis on urban themes and artistic installations.

1. The artist's latest installation at the metrograph challenges traditional perceptions of urban space.
2. She often visits the metrograph to experience films that highlight the nuances of city life.
3. After years of planning, the new metrograph is finally set to open in the heart of downtown.
4. The documentary screened at the metrograph explores the history of public transportation in major cities.
5. Attending the premiere at the metrograph felt like stepping into a vibrant community of film lovers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/metrograph>