

METROPOLE

Meaning: Metropole: a large, bustling city or urban center, often characterized by cultural diversity and a lively atmosphere.

1. The bustling metropole was alive with activity as people hurried to work.
2. Artists flocked to the metropole, drawn by its vibrant culture and diverse communities.
3. In a metropole, the blend of different cuisines offers a culinary adventure for locals and tourists alike.
4. The skyline of the metropole shimmered under the setting sun, showcasing its architectural brilliance.
5. Public transportation in the metropole was efficient, making it easy to explore its many neighborhoods.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/metropole>