

MEWL

Meaning: Mewl: to cry feebly or querulously, typically used to describe the sounds made by a young animal or baby.

1. The kitten began to mewl softly as it searched for its mother's warmth.
2. In the quiet of the night, the faint sound of a baby mewling could be heard through the walls.
3. She couldn't help but smile when she heard the playful mewling of her pet as it chased a toy.
4. The abandoned puppy mewled pitifully, drawing the attention of a kind passerby.
5. As the storm raged outside, the frightened cat mewled for comfort and reassurance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mewl>