

MEXICANIZE

Meaning: To Mexicanize means to incorporate or adapt elements of Mexican culture, cuisine, or style into something.

1. The restaurant decided to Mexicanize its menu by adding traditional dishes like tacos and enchiladas.
2. She used vibrant colors and festive decorations to Mexicanize the party's theme.
3. To attract a broader audience, the food truck owner wanted to Mexicanize some of his classic American recipes.
4. The art exhibit aimed to Mexicanize contemporary art by incorporating indigenous styles and themes.
5. In an effort to celebrate cultural diversity, the festival sought to Mexicanize its activities with traditional music and dance.
6. The chef decided to Mexicanize the traditional pasta dish by adding spicy salsa and fresh cilantro.
7. To appeal to a broader audience, the restaurant chose to Mexicanize its menu by incorporating more traditional ingredients.
8. During the festival, the organizers aimed to Mexicanize the atmosphere with colorful decorations and mariachi music.
9. As a creative challenge, the food blogger attempted to Mexicanize classic French recipes, blending flavors from both cultures.
10. The artist's latest exhibit seeks to Mexicanize modern art by infusing it with vibrant colors and folkloric themes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mexicanize>