

MICACEO-CALCAREOUS

Meaning: Micaceo-calcareous refers to a geological material or soil that contains both mica and calcium carbonate, influencing its mineral composition and properties.

1. The geologist collected micaceo-calcareous samples to analyze the sedimentary layers of the region.
2. In the laboratory, the researchers discovered that the micaceo-calcareous composition of the soil contributed to its unique mineral properties.
3. During the field study, they noted the prevalence of micaceo-calcareous rocks in the mountainous landscape.
4. The micaceo-calcareous deposits found in the riverbed provided valuable insights into the area's geological history.
5. She explained that micaceo-calcareous materials are often used in construction due to their durability and aesthetic appeal.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/micaceo-calcareous>