

MICROSCOPICALLY

Meaning: Microscopically means in a manner that involves the use of a microscope to observe very small details or structures that are not visible to the naked eye.

1. The researchers examined the samples microscopically to reveal hidden details.
2. In the lab, they studied the organism microscopically, uncovering its intricate structures.
3. Microscopically small particles can have significant effects on the environment.
4. The artist captured the beauty of nature microscopically, highlighting textures often overlooked.
5. Understanding the disease's progression requires analyzing cells microscopically.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/microscopically>