

MIDDAY

Meaning: Midday refers to the middle of the day, typically around noon, when the sun is at its highest point in the sky.

1. The sun was at its peak, casting long shadows at midday.
2. She always took her lunch break at midday to recharge for the afternoon.
3. The town square was bustling with activity during the midday market.
4. We decided to go for a hike at midday, enjoying the warmth of the sun.
5. Midday is often the hottest part of the day, so it's best to stay hydrated.
6. The sun was at its highest point in the sky, signaling that it was midday.
7. Midday is often the best time to take a break and enjoy a leisurely lunch.
8. She scheduled the meeting for midday, hoping it would be convenient for everyone.
9. The park was bustling with families enjoying picnics under the midday sun.
10. At midday, the city streets become quieter as people retreat indoors to escape the heat.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/midday>