

MIDDLING

Meaning: Middling: of only moderate or average quality; neither good nor bad.

1. The restaurant received a middling review, which reflected its average service and food quality.
2. His performance in the competition was middling, not quite good enough to make it to the finals.
3. Despite her middling grades, she was determined to improve and excel in her studies.
4. The film was met with middling box office success, leaving the producers uncertain about a sequel.
5. In a world of extreme talent, he often felt overshadowed by his own middling abilities.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/middling>