

MIDFEATHER

Meaning: Midfeather refers to the position or state of a bird's feathers during flight, particularly highlighting their elegance and movement in the air.

1. The artist captured the grace of the bird in midfeather, showcasing its delicate plumage.
2. As the owl soared silently through the night, its wings glimmered midfeather under the moonlight.
3. In the intricate design, the craftsman included motifs of flora intertwined with midfeather patterns.
4. The photograph perfectly froze the moment, highlighting the hummingbird in midfeather as it hovered.
5. With a gentle breeze, the feather floated down, landing midfeather on the tranquil surface of the pond.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/midfeather>