

MIDSHIP

Meaning: Midship refers to the central part of a ship, located equidistant from the bow and stern.

1. The crew gathered midship to discuss the upcoming voyage.
2. He felt a sense of stability as he stood midship, away from the ship's bow and stern.
3. The captain ordered the cargo to be secured midship for better balance during the storm.
4. Midship is often the most spacious area on a vessel, making it ideal for crew gatherings.
5. As the ship rocked gently, she made her way to the midship deck for a clearer view of the horizon.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/midship>