

MIFF

Meaning: Miff (verb): to make someone annoyed or displeased, often due to a perceived slight or disregard.

1. She was miffed when she discovered that her friends had planned a surprise party without telling her.
2. His abrupt dismissal of her idea left her feeling miffed and undervalued.
3. After missing the deadline, he felt miffed at himself for not managing his time better.
4. The slight grumble in her tone indicated that she was a bit miffed about the change in plans.
5. Although he tried to hide it, it was clear he was miffed by the unfair criticism he received.
6. She was miffed when her friend forgot her birthday.
7. The sudden change in plans left him feeling quite miffed.
8. He tried to hide his miffed expression as they discussed the decision.
9. After their argument, she was still miffed by his dismissive comments.
10. Although he was miffed, he decided to let it go for the sake of harmony.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/miff>