

MILDEW

Meaning: Mildew is a type of fungus that grows in damp, warm, and humid conditions, often appearing as a thin, whitish layer on surfaces and producing a musty odor.

1. The damp basement was a perfect breeding ground for mildew.
 2. She noticed a musty odor in the bathroom, indicating the presence of mildew.
 3. To prevent mildew from forming, it's important to keep the area well-ventilated.
 4. After weeks of rain, the walls of the house were covered in unsightly mildew.
 5. He used a special cleaner to remove the mildew from the shower curtain.
 6. The damp basement had a persistent smell of mildew that made it uncomfortable to spend time there.
 7. After weeks of rain, the walls of the old shed were covered in a fine layer of mildew.
 8. To prevent mildew from forming, it's essential to keep the bathroom well-ventilated and dry.
 9. She discovered mildew growing on the forgotten laundry that had been left in the washing machine too long.
 10. The gardener warned that too much humidity could lead to mildew on the plants, stunting their growth.
 11. The damp basement was filled with the musty smell of mildew, making it uncomfortable to spend any time there.
 12. After a week of heavy rain, mildew began to form on the walls of the old cottage.
 13. To prevent mildew from developing, it's important to ensure proper ventilation in areas prone to moisture.
 14. She discovered a patch of mildew on her favorite book, prompting her to take better care of her reading materials.
 15. The gardener advised using a fungicide to eliminate the mildew that was affecting the plants in her greenhouse.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mildew>