

MILE

Meaning: MILE: a unit of distance equal to 5,280 feet, commonly used to measure longer distances, especially in running and racing contexts.

1. Running a mile every morning has become a refreshing part of my routine.
2. The marathon course is marked every mile to help runners gauge their progress.
3. She calculated that the nearest gas station was just a mile down the road.
4. After a long hike, we finally reached the summit, which felt like a mile above sea level.
5. He was proud to say he had biked a mile without stopping for the first time.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mile>