

MILIOLITIC

Meaning: Miliolitic refers to a type of sedimentary deposit or fossil associated with the presence of miliolid foraminifera, commonly found in coastal and lagoonal environments.

1. Miliolitic deposits are often found in coastal environments and lagoons.
2. The study of miliolitic fossils can provide valuable insights into ancient marine ecosystems.
3. Geologists have identified miliolitic limestone as a key indicator of specific paleoenvironments.
4. Miliolitic species are characterized by their unique shell structures and ecological adaptations.
5. Researchers are investigating the role of miliolitic organisms in the sedimentary processes of the region.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/miliolitic>