

MILITANT

Meaning: Militant: characterized by aggressive or combative support for a cause, often involving direct action or violence.

1. The militant group claimed responsibility for the recent attacks in the region.
2. Her militant approach to activism often sparked heated debates among her peers.
3. He was known for his militant stance on environmental issues, advocating for radical changes.
4. The government's response to the militant uprising was swift and decisive.
5. Militant ideologies can often lead to polarization within a community.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/militant>