

MILITARILY

Meaning: Militarily refers to actions or strategies carried out by a nation's armed forces or relating to military operations and capabilities.

1. The country had to respond militarily to the unexpected aggression from its neighbor.
2. Historically, nations have often relied on military strength to assert themselves militarily on the global stage.
3. In times of crisis, leaders must consider whether to act diplomatically or militarily to achieve their objectives.
4. The alliance pledged to support each other militarily in the event of any external threats.
5. Militarily, the region has seen significant changes since the last conflict, altering the balance of power.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/militarily>