

MILITIA

Meaning: Militia refers to a group of citizens organized for military service, often to provide defense or support in emergencies or during conflicts.

1. The local militia organized a training session to prepare for potential emergencies.
2. During the revolution, many citizens formed militias to defend their towns against invaders.
3. The government criticized the militia for taking matters into their own hands without official approval.
4. In rural areas, the militia often played a crucial role in maintaining order and providing security.
5. The history of the region is marked by conflicts involving various militias vying for control.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/militia>