

MILLBOARD

Meaning: Millboard is a type of durable, weather-resistant board made from composite materials, often used for outdoor applications such as decking or pathways.

1. The carpenter selected a durable millboard for the outdoor project to ensure longevity.
2. After hours of research, she finally found a millboard that matched her aesthetic for the garden pathway.
3. The artist used a piece of millboard as a sturdy base for his intricate watercolor painting.
4. Millboards are often favored for their resistance to moisture, making them ideal for various construction projects.
5. The old millboard had weathered many seasons, yet its strength remained impressive for the new decking.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/millboard>