

MILLING

Meaning: MILLING: The act of grinding or crushing materials, particularly grains into flour, or the process of moving about in a leisurely or aimless manner.

1. The milling process transformed the raw grains into fine flour for the bakery.
2. She spent the afternoon milling about the art gallery, admiring the diverse exhibits.
3. The ancient tradition of milling grain has been practiced for thousands of years.
4. After milling the wood down to size, he began constructing the new shelving unit.
5. The sound of milling machines filled the factory as workers prepared for the day's production.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/milling>