

MILTONIC

Meaning: Miltonic: relating to or characteristic of the style, themes, or grandeur of the works of the poet John Milton, particularly noted for their elevated language and profound moral and philosophical concepts.

1. The poet's style was often described as Miltonic, filled with grand themes and elevated language.
2. Reading Paradise Lost, one can appreciate the Miltonic grandeur that inspires countless writers.
3. Her speech had a Miltonic rhythm, captivating her audience with its lyrical quality.
4. The novel's exploration of moral dilemmas was deeply influenced by Miltonic ideals of freedom and duty.
5. In his latest work, the author aimed for a Miltonic depth, drawing parallels between human struggles and divine interventions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/miltonic>