

MIMICALLY

Meaning: MIMICALLY: In a manner that imitates or resembles the behavior or actions of someone or something else.

1. The researchers observed that the species behaved mimically in response to their environment.
2. In her performance, the actress moved mimically, capturing the essence of her character flawlessly.
3. The software was designed to mimically replicate human speech patterns for a more natural interaction.
4. His gestures were mimically exaggerated, drawing laughter from the audience as he told his story.
5. The child played with the puppets, imitating their actions mimically to entertain her friends.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mimically>