

MIMICKER

Meaning: MIMICKER (noun): a person or thing that imitates or copies the sounds, actions, or characteristics of others.

1. The clever mimicker imitated the sound of the songbird perfectly, captivating everyone in the park.
2. In the classroom, the child was known as a mimicker, effortlessly copying his teacher's expressions and mannerisms.
3. The parrot is a remarkable mimicker, able to replicate not only human speech but also various household noises.
4. During the performance, the actor's mimicker skills added a layer of humor that delighted the audience.
5. As a mimicker of popular trends, she always seemed to know what was fashionable before it became mainstream.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mimicker>