

MINCE-MEAT

Meaning: Mince-meat is a mixture of chopped dried fruits, spices, and sometimes meat, traditionally used as a filling for pies, especially during the holiday season.

1. The aroma of the homemade mince-meat pie filled the kitchen with a warm, festive scent.
2. During the holidays, my grandmother always made her famous mince-meat filling from scratch.
3. She surprised everyone at dinner by bringing a delicious mince-meat tart that she had baked herself.
4. Mince-meat is traditionally used in a variety of desserts, especially during the Christmas season.
5. I love the combination of spices and dried fruits in a good batch of mince-meat.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mince-meat>