

MINCING

Meaning: Mincing refers to the act of speaking in a careful, delicate manner to avoid offense or to cutting food into very small pieces.

1. She was mincing her words carefully to avoid offending anyone in the room.
2. The chef spent hours mincing garlic and herbs for the perfect sauce.
3. He walked into the meeting, mincing his steps to appear more composed.
4. The actress's performance was criticized for mincing her emotions rather than expressing them authentically.
5. In the kitchen, mincing vegetables is essential for ensuring even cooking.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mincing>