

MINERAL

Meaning: Mineral: a naturally occurring inorganic substance with a definite chemical composition and physical properties, often found in rocks and essential for biological functions.

1. The geologist studied the mineral composition of the rock sample.
2. Many vitamins and minerals are essential for maintaining good health.
3. The shimmering mineral deposits in the cave captivated the tourists.
4. She collects mineral specimens from various locations around the world.
5. Mineral water is often preferred for its refreshing taste and health benefits.
6. The geologist discovered a previously unknown mineral in the remote cave system.
7. Mineral-rich waters are often sought after for their therapeutic properties.
8. Many vitamins and nutrients are derived from various mineral sources in our diet.
9. The shimmering crystals formed as the mineral deposits slowly crystallized over time.
10. She collected samples of different minerals to study their properties under a microscope.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mineral>