

MINERALIZE

Meaning: Mineralize: to convert organic material into a mineral form, often through natural processes or biological activity.

1. The process of mineralizing organic material can take thousands of years.
2. Scientists study how certain fungi can help to mineralize soil and enhance its fertility.
3. To mineralize water in aquariums, aquarists often use specific additives that promote the growth of beneficial minerals.
4. Many health supplements claim to mineralize the body, providing essential nutrients for overall well-being.
5. The ancient practice of mineralizing clay has been used to create durable pottery that lasts for generations.
6. The body requires certain nutrients to mineralize bones and maintain their strength.
7. Geologists study how natural processes can mineralize organic materials over millions of years.
8. To enhance the flavor of the dish, the chef decided to mineralize the salt used in the brine.
9. Researchers are exploring ways to mineralize carbon dioxide to combat climate change.
10. The soil was treated to mineralize its nutrients, resulting in healthier crops.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mineralize>